

Submitter:

Denise Tschann

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB1153

Our free flowing waters are one of the most important natural resources in the World. In Oregon it is important to not cave to domestic over use. Instream habitat overuse threatens endangered or sensitive aquatic life important for the balance nature has established. Please consider water quality impairment which usually can not be undone as a prerequisite to adding burdens to our incredible natural water systems.