

Submitter: Kari Kari

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB1153

Opposed - absolutely NO water meters for privately paid, owned and drilled wells. Drilling a new well is upwards of $30,000+/- . It takes years, decades to recoup in well water what it cost to drill and maintain a well. There are additional costs to treat poor quality well water too.

If the state covers 100% of cost to drill and maintain the well on private property, that would be another discussion.