

Submitter: Torrence Rockwood

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB1153

SB 1153 would add an unnecessary layer of regulation to an already complex water regulatory process.

The existing water use restrictions provide more than adequate safeguards, More restrictions would only harm farmers already struggling to provide for their families and to provide food for Oregonians