Absolutely not!. No more taxes!.

From one very angry oregonian.

I do not support any new taxes in any fashion. Do you know how much this is going to hurt your constituents? More and more oregonians, and businesses are going to leave this state and plunder oregon into deeper deficits. But you know what that's fine, let Oregon hit rock bottom. Maybe people will finally wake up and realize the Democrats have only one thing on their mind, and that is to take more and more and more money from hard-working families in oregon. When is the madness going to stop?

I for one am I moving out of Oregon to a free state, to a more tax-friendly state in august. I've had enough of the insanity and I hope more and more and more people leave. We don't have to put up with this there are other states to go to. Let Oregon fail
