A billion dollars, Seriously? Do the Democrats pushing this think we are all wealthy and can afford to take on more debt? That's the best way I know of for people to say enough is enough we can't take it anymore. This is very angering the way they like to spend other peoples money. I will personally spread the word that these people do not have our best interest at heart. What we see are those who are supposed to be helping us seem to be getting wealthier while we foot the bill.
