Well here I am again making another testimony. Because you guys keep changing the game. I've honestly lost track of how many times I've testified. This is cheating/ dirty pool.

You guys are the dumbest smart people I know. Gun laws don't work. Making something illegal doesn't stop someone from committing murder. "Murder" is already illegal, and has the stiffest consequences. As a matter of fact. You guys will probably just drop the gun charges , just to get a confession.

You don't have the money for any of this. The state with the strictest gun laws also have the highest gun violence rates. Stop making everyone soft targets.. anyway this testimony probably isn't going to matter, because you guys will see there's more of us again. Then change something so I'll have to do this all over again. Thanks for wasting my time

Sincerely an disappointed Oregonian
