

Submitter: Naomi Serio

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Joint Committee On Transportation Reinvestment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2025

For safe alternatives to car transportation, off-street trail networks are critical. Whether it is kids walking to school or biking to work, like many of my coworkers do, it's much safer when we have trails separately from the street. Transportation must also take climate change into consideration and encourage biking, walking, and public transportation.