

Submitter: Josh Warshauer

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Joint Committee On Transportation Reinvestment

Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2025

I want to continue to see public transport become more efficient and reliable for not only people like myself, but everyone. If public transport is considered more efficient and reliable more people will take the bus/train. This means less people will drive cars, reducing carbon emissions. A net good for the environment and for the city.