SB243

The only people you are taking rights away from is law abiding. We legally purchase have a background check. We don't break the law. You let criminals own guns undocumented in their name. The triggers are to help handicap that may not be able to use the other way due to missing limbs. You are taking your problems out on the people that pay. We take classes to conceal carry pay for them and permits and make it harder to do so legally. Such a sad state we are in
