

- To whom it may concern
-
- This will really hurt a lot of people
-
- Put it up for a vote of the people
-
- The number of people who oppose Oregon HB 2025 is difficult, but reports indicate that there is significant opposition to the bill.
- Arguments against HB 2025:
 -
 - Excessive taxes and fees: Opponents argue that the bill includes over 35 new taxes and fees, which could cost Oregon families over $1 billion per year.
 - Secrecy in its creation: Concerns have been raised about the bill being developed in secret.
 - Lack of accountability: Some critics argue the bill lacks sufficient mechanisms to hold the Oregon Department of Transportation accountable for spending the new revenue.
 - Impact on specific industries: For example, there's concern that a $20 per-mile road usage permit fee for delivery vehicles is misworded and could potentially
 - Impact on specific demographics: The mandatory per-mile road usage fee for electric vehicle owners, starting in 2026, could disproportionately affect those who have already invested in electric vehicles.
 - Opposition from Republicans: Republicans have generally opposed the bill, with some questioning its path forward.
 - Concerns about government overreach: Some opponents view the bill as an example of excessive government involvement.

I STRONGLY OPPOSE THIS BILL

Rocky Wardle