I strongly oppose senate bill 243. Oregon already has some of the strongest gun laws in the country. But laws only affect the law abiding. Imposing additional restrictions on the law abiding will not improve safety. But the Oregon legislature doesn't really care about safety, they only care about control. Concealed carry license holders are one of the most law abiding demographics in the country. But our lawmakers dislike citizens who desired to have the ability to protect themselves. Oregon lawmakers give pass to criminals and punish the law abiding with restrictions to their rights. The second amendment is a law that governs the lawmakers, it is not a secondhand right, it is the law above the lawmakers.
