Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2025

Oregonians are taxed more than enough already for our transportation systems. The problem is not that there is insufficient funds but that the state does not prioritize spending existing funds efficiently towards appropriate goals. A change of mindset needs to occur in our government, not an increase in funding. The working and tax paying people of Oregon cannot continue to support government bloat. Other states manage to deliver for much less, there is no valid excuse for Oregon to be coming up short.
