I cannot believe something this silly is on the ballot, and tax dollars are being spent on this. This is a direct violation of the constitutional rights of citizens. Criminals and the like who would use something like this in a crime, would not care about trigger device legalities. So, the only people impacted are thy legal gun owners. Pretty sad day.

Same goes with the concealed carry changes. Only citizens in good standing, with extra training can obtain a chl. Yet, these are the only people impacted by this. I cannot believe tax dollars are being spent on laws that will make ordinary tax payers, criminals.

On both accounts, the persons likely to violate either of these, likely isn't allowed to own guns due to previous records. This does not make anybody safer and violates our rights.
