SB 243 is nothing but a "feel good" bill that will do nothing but punish law abiding citizens by turning them into criminals for things that were perfectly legal yesterday. The same goes for the other hoplophobic bills on the docket, Only there to punish law abiding citizens while doing absolutely nothing to curb gun violence, or perhaps increase the risk, (i.e. banning concealed carry in random places.)

"Rapid fire activators", besides being a very nebulous term, are nothing more than silly little toys that no criminals are even using. Banning them will have no effect on crime or violence at all. Except as mentioned, turning previously law abiding citizens into criminals over a mere toy.
