SB243

Once again, I like so many other law abiding Oregonians are finding it necessary to submit vehement opposition to bad cess legislation that if enacted into law would serve only to infringe upon long held rights, while doing absolutely nothing to promote community safety. This bill serves only to prohibit and punish the most statistically law abiding segment of the population, that being legal firearm owners. As such it lacks constitutional authority, both at the state and federal levels. It's a travesty that this bill has advanced even this far.
