SB243

This bill, just like measure 114, seeks to make regular firearms enthusiasts criminals. Just like the magazine ban that keeps getting pushed that gets overturned as it should.

I did not grow up a firearms owner, and was rather hesitant to touch firearms growing up. But I navigated my way with people I trust to show me correct skills. I've considered myself a Democrat for most of my life, but the reliance on the democrats pushing firearm laws and restrictions is quite possibly the dumbest thing and hurting your party and its constituents.

None of your constituents really want this, and those that do have the smallest understanding of firearms. If the democratic party took a softer 2A stance or better yet. Backed off 2A issues, you probably would have a democrat in the WH. Now is not the time to be restricting firearms when government agents are kidnapping people and we have an open fascist, bigot, racist and exist president in the oval office.

If the democratic party focused its energy combating housing, mental health and the fascist at the WH, everyone would be much better off.
