Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB2025

The Transportation ReInvestment Package is close to everything we could hope for in a transportation package, but the final package needs to address the green economy. Transportation is the largest cause of greenhouse gasses in our economy and we need to electrify our grid to reduce the impacts. There are smart ways to fund this transition that doesn't place the burden on Oregon's most vulnerable community members, and that is by placing taxes on luxury cars. With that change, I am in full support of the Transportation ReInvestment Package.
