SB243 was already an unnecessary infringement on law abiding Oregon gun owners' rights.

The new amendment to add measure 114's magazine ban and permit to purchase system is a sleazy back door approach to side stepping the judicial process. M114 is already law and the Oregon Supreme Court has agreed to hear its appeal. Let the case run its course instead of forcing this amendment on the people of Oregon (half of which didn't want M114 in the first place) and let the State's High court decide rather than sneaking in this last minute amendment to start this fiasco all over again.

The Oregon legislature has way more important issues to deal with than passing additional unnecessary gun restrictions. We have some of the lowest gun crime rates in the country. Focus on issues that matter to Oregonians in their day to day lives instead of virtue signaling with the unnecessary and impractical SB243.
