

Submitter:

James Steele

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB2977

These funds are desperately needed to help maintain the function of our beautiful ecosystems and the creatures that are supported by it. Spending the money to help these species now will create millions of dollars of savings down the road. This bill makes fiscal sense and will benefit all Oregon residents and visitors.