

Submitter:

Davesh Patel

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB2977

This bill will make Oregon less competitive in the tourism industry and increase lodging prices above cities that are Portland's total lodging tax would rise to 17.25%, putting it above San Francisco and Austin — and at the top of West Coast competitors. This directly threatens hotel bookings, meetings, events, and restaurant traffic.

Please oppose this bill.