Dear Members of the House Committee on Rules,

Oregonians are tired of our voices being drowned out by those making big dollar donations to campaigns. It is time to get serious about campaign finance reform. Last year, we participated in good faith negotiations to get a decent bill through the legislature. We dropped our ballot initiative that would have put strict limits on your campaigns and put our trust in you. Are you now going to renege on promises?

Make the technical fixes recommended by Honest Elections Oregon. Allocate the funds necessary for software updates. But Vote No on the -5 amendment seeking to delay by YEARS the implementation of honest, transparent election contributions.

Respectfully,
Cheryl Conway
