Measure, Appointment or Topic: HB3392

I am appalled by the sudden last-minute filing of bill HB 3392, as well as it's goal. The Oregon campaign finance system is one of the most corrupt in the nation, and desperately needs to be fixed. The citizens of the state have made it clear that we want a less rigged political system here, and the requirement to study and fix the campaign finance system is the result of that. The last-minute attempt to derail that effort is clear proof of corruption on the part of the filers of this bill, and I urge that it be voted down.

Thank you,
Nancy Harrison
