Businesses are leaving OREGON because they can't afford this state.

I present to you my Dad's 1976 poem:

Tax him, tax him all you can,
Tax his house and tax his bed.
Tax the bald spot on his head.
Tax the bread and tax his meat.
Tax his shoes right off his feet.
Teach him government is no joke.
Tax his boat and tax his gas.
Tax all the roads that he must pass.
Tax the farmer and tax his fowl.
Tax his dog and tax his howl.
Tax his pig and tax its squeal.
Tax his boots run down at the heel.
Tax his barns and tax his lands.
Tax the blisters on his hands.
Tax the water and tax the air,
Then tax the sunshine if you dare!
Tax the living and tax the dead.
Tax the unborn before they are fed.
Tax them all and tax them well,
And do your best to make life hell!
