I am writing to oppose amendment -5 to Oregon House Bill 3392.

Oregonians overwhelmingly voted for transparency in campaign finance and we expect you to keep your promises. No one person or entity should have a stronger say than every other individual voter.

Please provide the ongoing money needed to fund creating the website/software updates and other tools to make campaign finance transparent, but there is no need to push the implementation date out for even one day.

Please show your constituents that you work for them and not for big donors.
