

I oppose HB3392. I want transparency, integrity, honesty and accountability from our elected officials. I want full disclosure of who's funding and donating campaign money and to which government officials.