

Submitter:

William Smaldone

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB2977

Funding to help preserve Oregon's wildlife is desperately needed. This bill would provide substantial means to the state to protect our wildlife at a time when our environment is under intensifying threat from climate change and the federal government is simply making the problem worse. This bill is not a panacea, but it would enable Oregon to take proactive steps to enhance our natural world.