Oregon is my home but I do not even recognize it anymore. My adult children are struggling to survive financially here and talk about having to move if prices go up again. We can not afford to retire here and will have to move out of our home state. This winter my husband and I visited a few other states ... all red and all had gas prices 1.35-1.50 cheaper per gallon, food was cheaper and no homeless on corners. Please do not raise taxes again . You will have multiple families leave their beloved state.
