I work at adidas and make about $81,000 a year before taxes. I drive 15 miles each way to work, and even with a decent job, I'm barely getting by with how expensive everything is right now.

I'm against HB 3402. It started out as a simple study about speed bumps, but now it's turning into higher gas taxes and fees that people like me just can't afford. What happened to helping make Oregon affordable? Are you trying to make everyone homeless? This is absurd, and please cut it out.

People are going to leave Oregon if this keeps up. We need real solutions that actually make life better and more affordable—not just more expenses.

Thanks for your time.
