- one classified staff member at a public school or an education service district (DUERFELDT);
- up to three participating local government managers; and
- up to three participating local government nonmanagement employees (GRAUPP).

Duties⁴

The board seeks to provide high-quality health, dental, and other benefit plans for eligible employees at an affordable cost to districts and local governments, employees, and the taxpayers. The board must:

- contract for benefit plans;
- adopt rules and employ personnel;
- study the provision of benefit plan coverage based on the welfare of the employees and affordability for the districts and local governments;
- design benefits and award contracts for health and dental benefit plan coverage;
- impose a surcharge for coverage for a spouse or dependent if they have access to coverage as an employee in another offered health benefit plan;
- provide options for coverage for family members;
- limit per-member expenditures growth for the annual premium increase for contracted health benefit plans to 3.4 percent per year;
- conduct an audit of the health benefit plan enrollees' continued eligibility for coverage on any basis that affects the premium cost for the plan; and
- If the board spends less than 12 percent of its medical expenditures in self-insured health benefit plans on payments for primary care, implement a plan for increasing the percentage by at least one percent a year and report annually to the Legislative Assembly.
