As a life long Oregonian who has worked and paid taxes for over 50 years in this state...enough is enough. We live on a fixed income and every time we get a cost of living raise up go prices etc.two times more than the raise. We have to live on a budget our state needs to start living on one. NO is NO ON MORE TAX HIKES FOR THE Privilege of owning and driving a car. I respectfully submit to our Governor that the majority of Oregon's residents feel the same way. Stop taxing us and manage the money just has we have to
