- Cascadia Subduction Zone event and its possible impacts
- Provisions of the measure

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

-1 The amendment adds an $250,000 appropriation to ODOE for purposes of carrying out Section 1 of the Act.

BACKGROUND:

Senate Bill 1567 (2022) required the Oregon Department of Energy develop the Oregon Energy Security Plan to evaluate the state's ability to recover quickly from physical threats, including a magnitude 9.0 Cascadia Subduction Zone earthquake and cybersecurity threats. The measure also required the department to make recommendations for increasing the geographic diversity of fuel storage capacity throughout the state.
