(c) "Lone worker" means an individual who directly provides or assists with the delivery of behavioral health services and works in a situation or location without a colleague nearby or without close or direct supervision.

(2) A behavioral health employer shall:

(a) Implement a written policy or plan for the physical safety of individuals working for the behavioral health employer.

(b) Provide a copy of the safety policy or plan to new workers upon hire.

(3) A safety policy or plan required under this section must:

(a) Include a plan for addressing the physical safety of lone workers.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

1       (b) Include a plan for the safety of the built environment, including:

2       (A) How workers may report structural security hazards; and

3       (B) The time frame within which the behavioral health employer must respond to a re-
4 port of a structural security hazard.

5       (c) Include information for workers about the safety training that the behavioral health
6 employer is required to provide under ORS 430.775, including the time frame within which
7 the employer must provide all required training for a new worker and how often the em-
8 ployer must provide renewal training for current workers.

9       (d) Be tailored to the behavioral health employer's specific context.

10      (e) Be easily accessible to staff.

11      SECTION 2. The requirements under section 1 of this 2026 Act apply to behavioral health
12 employers as follows:

13      (1) For a behavioral health employer that does not have a contract with the authority in
14 effect on the effective date of this 2026 Act, the requirements apply on the date on which the 15 behavioral health employer first enters into a contract with the authority for the provision
16 of behavioral health services.

17      (2) For a behavioral health employer that has an existing contract with the authority in 18 effect on the effective date of this 2026 Act, the requirements apply on the effective date of 19 the first renewal, extension or amendment of that contract occurring after the contract's 20 expiration.

21      SECTION 3. This 2026 Act takes effect on July 1, 2027.
