Greetings Senate Judiciary Committee,

I am Tony Pokorny and oppose SB 1545 on simple merit that no one has any right to trespass upon private property no matter what. If this pass, what sort of reactions will happen to be? What is the definition that is "reasonable" to cut a corner on someone's private property while hopping from one private property to another? There is literally nothing mentioned. A square foot? Square yard?

It's a complete annoyance for anyone to trespass upon private property for any reason whatsoever. Would anyone who wrote this be willing to allow anyone to just step on their property even for a moment? Every step breaks down grass, and if that spot kept getting stepped on wears out grass, damaging private property. I like my yard the way it is, not trampled.
