Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB1593

For the record my name is Jessica Monger and I am a resident of Bend, Oregon. Time spent in the outdoors, recreating and finding adventure, is more important now than perhaps ever before. Recreation is such a vital antidote to the skyrocketing rates of anxiety, depression, and suicide that threaten our communities. For cities like Bend, the health of our economies are also at risk when our outdoor recreational resorts and activities are at risk. Please pass this common sense legislation to ensure that costs for operators can stay in check, so it's feasible for local people to own local business and keep access to the great outdoors as reasonable as possible.
