INSTRUCTORS

Design

Shirley Tetreault began her Association with NGC in 1997 when she ventured into the beginning Flower Show School class that she will be teaching as our Design Instructor. Shirley is a Design/Flower Show Procedure/ Symposium Instructor for National Garden Clubs, Inc., providing training for our Nationally Accredited Judges across the country including 10 states, and she will add California to her list with her teaching assignment for our Course 1.

Shirley has been associated with a wide variety of garden related organizations such as the Master Gardener, serving two terms as president of New Mexico Garden Clubs, Inc. She has served on the NGC Board in a variety of positions, and is serving on the Flower Show Committee, correcting the Flower Show Schedules for new student judges.

Horticulture

Karen Booker graduated from the University of Minnesota with a degree in education and spent several years teaching high school Spanish and French in Minnesota and New York state. She continued her education at the University of Kansas and earned a Master's degree in Teaching English as a Second Language and a PhD. in Linguistics, with a specialty in American Indian Languages. She has taught at the University of Kansas and the University of Colorado, Boulder.

Karen is an NGC Accredited-Master Judge and a Flower Show Schools Instructor of Horticulture.

She has served on the NGC National Board and is a member of the Flower Show School Committee.

A gardener her entire life, Karen has grown just about every type of plant at one time or another.
