Dear House Committee,

The State of Oregon forestland has become one big eye sore, especially along the coastal range. One clear cut after the next leaves little to be enjoyed, as both residents and as visitors to our state.

In addition, our forests are no longer forests, they are plantations, with little to no wildlife or plant life. Forestland harvests are not sustainable, they are simply plantations for corporate benefit.. It's time for the State Forester to better manage our forests, not just for Wall Street, but for Oregonians and the wildlife we cherish.

thank you

Scott Penzarell a
