

- Local communities rely on commerce associated with the recreation and health and fitness industries to strengthen their economies, create jobs and enhance their quality of life.
- SB1593 returns waivers to their intention to allow operators to conduct safe and reasonable practices in offering recreational activities to the public
- The insurance impacts of the current Oregon recreation liability environment are resulting in higher costs to our club and could result in closure of some entities.
- Every other western state enforces recreational liability waivers for ordinary negligence, creating unique challenges and competitive disadvantages for Oregon's recreation and health and fitness providers.