

Please Protect Oregon's Farmstands and Agritourism by Supporting HB4153

Dear Representatives Owens and Helm,

I'm writing as an engaged Oregonian citizen and someone who considers the positive economic liberty to invite guests onto private lands and create a business enterprise to serve the community to edify the American Experiment. From hay rides to pumpkin patches to apple cider, these are experiences that are literally homegrown. These farms aren't just places to visit. They're run by hardworking families who support local jobs, bring life to our rural communities, and help preserve Oregon's agricultural heritage. That's why I'm writing to you to ask you to support HB4153 this legislative session. This house bill will protect farm stands and agritourism as it provides farm permit holders with clarity, efficiency, and support to educate and sell to the public. Farmstands and agritourism businesses deserve our support. They're already doing the hard work of growing food, welcoming visitors, educating the public, and keeping our rural economy strong. Please stand with them and support HB4153. Let's make sure Oregon continues to be a place where agriculture and community thrive together.

Thank you for listening and for standing up for Oregon's farmers.

Sincerely,

Carson of Portland, Oregon
