Topic:

I strongly support taking care of our forests. We have cowed to the environmentalists too long and it is not working. We have major wildfires, animal losses and harm to our communities. Modern timber companies care about the forest. It is their livelihood. We have a lot of timber on our lands, let's manage it properly. Wildlife and logging can be managed together. GET SMART people. What we have been doing is not working. Let's see what our resources actually are. I am really hoping this is an honest approach at managing our timberlands and not a diversion to avoid what we really need to do.
