

I am opposed to this bill because rich people should not be the only people able to afford a farm. This bill will make it harder for young farmers to start a business.