Attention Senate Commimittee On Education. I support SB 1572, authorizing a teacher to immediately remove from the classroom setting a student who repeatedly interferes with the teacher's ability to communicate effectively with the students in the class or with the ability of students to learn. My granddaughter, who is a teacher, has this problem with students who act up in class. When the parents are called, the parent expects it's the teacher's job to handle their child for six hours of school. They never support the teacher in this type of situation. The school is not a babysitter facility! Maybe you should have a Bill where it is required that the parent spend a day observing their disruptive child in class.
