HB4074

I am a registered nurse living and working in Oregon, and I am writing to oppose HB 4074. The way the current law is written ensures that hospitals are making an effort to adequately staff their facilities. This directly impacts the quality of patient care. Making sure that facilities are adequately staffed also contributes to reduced burnout and fatigue. HB 4074 is a step backwards, and a step in the wrong direction towards protecting patients and the staff that care for them.
