I loved Oregon as a magnificent state, but bad government has diminished the light it once shined. The city of Portland is no longer the golden star with riots every night, gangs in charge, businesses giving up and no end in sight for law enforcement. Oregon is already rated as one of the worst tax states.

Please do not move this tax vote to May. Keep it in November's ballot next to everyone who is running for election.

The referendum date violates the Oregon Constitution, which states that elections on initiative and referendum measures must be held at the regular general elections unless otherwise ordered by the Legislature. We don't need any more taxes we need a new straight governor like honorable representatives who won't cheat Oregonians and cherish it as I do.
