Topic:

It is time for the Democrats to listen to reason and respect the will of the voters. Your own Secretary of State put the November date on the signature sheets we all signed. Take it up with him. If you didn't want to face this referendum on the ballot, then you should have listened when people said they didn't want this, before the special session that led to the referendum.

Just because you can do something, doesn't mean you should. You only prove how little you think of Oregon voters with these antics.

One last point- your refusal to entertain anything from the minority is depriving anyone who elected Republicans of their elected representation and their voice in Salem, which is cruel and reprehensible at best.
