The voters of Oregon have spoken loudly that they do not want this huge Liberal Democrat tax increase. Now the Democrat controlled legislature is attempting to double shuffle and gaslight the public, once again. Oregonians are tired of taxes being forced on us. It is time for our government to start being accountable for the tax money being spent and stop asking for more. This referendum should be voted on in the November election. Moving it forward to May is irresponsible and reprehensible. The voters will remember those that vote for this obvious political move. VOTE NO!
