I am in opposition of moving the Transportation bill to the May ballot. We made our voices heard to put it on the November ballot, just because it is an inconvenience and reminds people what Tina Kotek did does not give you the right to push it to the May ballot. I know you are going to ignore us and try to push this through anyway because recently it feels like we are living in an authoritarian state, but I implore you to do the right thing this time. No matter how hard it is for you.
