To our politicians,

I am absolutely opposed to your attempt to move the vote on the tax (which voters cannot afford!) from the November General Election to the May Primary Election.

That is bad for three reasons.

- 1) Fewer people vote in the primary.
- 2) Moving it to May does not allow people enough time to submit arguments to the Voters Pamphlet.
- 3) It goes directly against the wording of the petition that voters signed stating a November vote.

This is underhanded and sneaky. Be transparent in behalf of the people you claim to represent.

With respect,
Alicia Hackley
