I believe the Democrats know exactly what they are doing.

Tina Koteck knows this will put another feather in her hat, but moving on this ballot is known by the Almighty, hard to believe any Democrats have a soul.

I continue to pray for these people. Since those that are not retired do not know the freedom our parents had that fought for our United States of America on foreign soil. My family all fought for our freedoms as promoting Christian values. I'm just sorry that the Republicans and Democrats can't come to a common sense belief.

Most of our friends have moved from this state for the state of mind the democratic party stands for.

I am ashamed to live here, apparently money is not an object for those in office.

God bless America
