We visited this last session and the answer is still NO, NEVER will we agree to allow the governor to have the ability to flood the floors with the bills that she wants and limit the bills that SHOULD represent the will of the people. This is ludicrous.

I agree that too many bills are coming in each session, but so many of them that are created, never needed to be created in first place. IF legislators actually did their jobs, as they were elected to do, the number of bills would drop dramatically.

If the number of bills needs to be limited, then limit what the governor can bring forth, and do NOT allow SOS, judges, Treasurer, AG and CBLI to bring bills at all. They can go through their appropriate legislator or governor, as appropriate. Governor should have lower limit of allowed bills than the legislators do, allow 10 bills per session for her, outside the yearly fiscal Christmas bill.
