HB4002

This bill is extremely 'modest' in it's attempt to bring a bit of reality into the Oregon legislature. Reality in the context of being able to say honestly you understood every bill you voted on. Because all of us 'minions' in the public sector who pay attention know that you aren't able to review all the written comments that are submitted, or allow all who sign up to speak a chance to do so.

Limits won't hurt you. Try some self control. You might be surprised that there's more to doing the public's work than your own ego.

Please vote yes on this teeny tiny baby steps in the right direction bill.

Thank you.
